1.10. If You conduct or attempt to conduct any transaction in violation of the prohibitions contained in this Agreement, we reserve the right to:

- reverse the transaction; and/or
- block or suspend Your Accounts or any of them; and/or
- report the transaction to the relevant law enforcement agency; and/or
- claim damages from You; and
- charge You an administration fee of up to 100 USD (or equivalent in any Asset) in case we apply any of the above.

2. RISKS ACCEPTANCE

2.1. The Company provides an execution-only service and does not advise on the merits of any particular transactions or their tax consequences. As a general matter You should familiarize Yourself with our Risk Disclosure Statement, that is an integral part of this Agreement and contains description legal risks and risks associated with trade operations and Virtual Currencies. However, Customers should also be aware of the following prior to utilizing our Services:

2.1.1. Virtual Currencies can be extremely risky. Each particular Virtual Currency has a unique feature set that makes it more or less likely to fluctuate in value. In addition, factors beyond Company's control may affect market liquidity for a particular Virtual Currency, such as regulatory activity, market manipulation, or unexplainable price volatility. Blockchain networks may go offline as a result of bugs, hard forks, or a number of other unforeseeable reasons. The Company does not assume the risk of losses due to trading or due to factors beyond its control regarding the viability of specific blockchain networks. As a general matter, we advise Customers with limited trading experience and low risk tolerance not to engage in active trading. Speculating on the value of Assets is high risk and You should never trade more than You can afford to lose.

2.1.2. Understanding Virtual Currencies requires advanced technical knowledge. Virtual Currencies are often described in exceedingly technical language that requires a comprehensive understanding of applied cryptography and computer science in order to appreciate inherent risks. Listing of a Virtual Currency on the Exchange Platform does not indicate approval or disapproval of the underlying technology regarding any Virtual Currency, and should not be used as a substitute for Your own understanding of the risks specific to each Virtual Currency. We give You no warranty as to the suitability of the Assets traded under these Agreement and assume no fiduciary duty in our relations with You.

2.1.3. Users accept all consequences of sending Assets to any addresses. For example, an address may have been entered incorrectly and the true owner of the address may never be discovered, or an address may belong to an entity that will not return Your Assets, or an address belongs to an entity that may return Your Assets but first requires action on Your part, such as verification of Your identity. The transactions may not be reversible. Once You send Assets to an address, You accept the risk that You may lose access to Your Assets indefinitely.

2.1.4. You accept the risk of trading Assets, that more detailed is stated in our Risk Disclosure Statement. In entering into any transaction via Your Trading Room, on the Exchange Platform or on any Your Account, You represent that You have been, are, and will be solely responsible for making Your own independent appraisal and investigations into the risks of the transaction and the underlying Assets. You represent that You have sufficient knowledge, market sophistication, professional advice and experience to make Your own evaluation of the merits and risks of any transaction or any underlying Asset.

2.2. You are responsible for complying with applicable law. You agree that the Company is not responsible for determining whether or which laws may apply to Your transactions, including tax law. You are solely responsible for reporting and paying any taxes arising from Your use of the Services.

2.3. The Company does not advise on trading risk. If at any point the Company or its representatives do provide trading recommendations, market commentary, or any other information, the act of doing so is incidental to Your relationship with us and imposes no obligation of truth or due diligence on behalf of the Company or its representatives.

2.4. You should check Your Accounts balances and transaction history regularly. You should report any irregularities or clarify any questions You have as soon as possible by contacting Customer Service.

3. CUSTOMER'S TRADING ROOM, DEPOSITING AND WITHDRAWAL OF ASSETS

3.1. After completing the registration process, You may log in Your Trading Room on the Website by entering Your email address and password that You have got during the registration. The Trading Room contains the information about Your Assets. The Trading Room also provides the possibility to open Accounts by following simple instructions.

3.2. You can deposit Assets by visiting the Website, logging into Your Trading Room and following the relevant deposit instructions in the Trading Room. Your Trading Room will be used to store various Assets as deposited by You. Depositing of fiat currencies is allowed for corporate and institutional Customers only;

3.3. You can request a withdrawal of all or part of the Assets held in Your Trading Room at any time by following the instructions specified in the Trading Room.

3.4. You may withdraw all or some of Your available and unlocked Assets, provided that there are enough Assets left to support any current exchange orders (if any).

4. CASH ACCOUNT AND CONDUCTING TRADING OPERATIONS VIA THE EXCHANGE PLATFORM

4.1. The Cash account is an electronic facility, which enables You to use the Exchange platform and related exchange Services. Subject to the terms expressly stipulated below on the Cash Accounts, the Company provides the Customer with an access to the Exchange Platform functionality, which is designed to make the Customer possible to exchange Assets with another Company's customers at the prices specified by the Company's customers only.

4.2. For the avoidance of doubt the Company does not issue Assets to its customers and does not deal as a counterparty in respect of exchange transactions with its customers; rather, the Company merely provides to its customers an access to the technological facility (the Exchange Platform) and related Asset exchange services to conveniently exchange their existing Assets with other customers.

4.3. The Cash account is opened automatically when the Customer completes the registration process, and the credentials for the Cash account are provided to the Customer by E-Mail. After opening of the Cash account you may sell the respective available Assets from Your Cash account to the other Company's customers, by creating exchange orders following instructions provided in the Trading Room. Customers' exchange orders are executed at the Exchange Platform by a technology that automatically matches buy and sell orders of incoming prices generated by the Customers. Matching bids and offers to buy and sell Assets are automatically paired by the Exchange Platform. Once a match is made, the exchange order is executed and cleared instantaneously.

4.4. You hereby agree and acknowledge that by issuing the exchange order You authorize the Company to automatically transfer the exchanged amounts once a match is made, i.e. to credit Your Cash account with the Asset You sell and debit Your Cash account with the Asset You buy. You will be notified that the exchange order has been executed. You should only place an exchange order if You fully intend to complete the transaction.

4.5. The Exchange Platform may part-perform an exchange order made by You and You hereby irrevocably acknowledge and agree that the Company shall be permitted to do so.

4.6. Each exchange order issued on the Exchange Platform is irrevocable and binding on the Customer. Unless otherwise specified in this Agreement, the Company will not reverse an exchange order upon the Customer's request to the extent that it has been already filled. The Customer may delete, cancel or modify the exchange order until it is not matched with one or more other exchange orders as set out above.

4.7. The Company shall at all times be entitled to operate on the basis that each exchange order is correct and does not contain any errors.

4.8. Each exchange order will be confirmed to the Customer using the Exchange Platform's recordkeeping functionality and can be viewed by the Customer in the terminal history.

4.9. The Company is not responsible for Asset exchange transactions carried out between the Customers. You hereby agree and acknowledge that You are bearing all risks associated with the Asset exchange transactions made through the Exchange Platform. The Company is not responsible for any disputes among or between the Customers regarding any transaction. The Company does not in any case guarantee that the buyer or the seller finds a suitable exchange offer to sell or to buy.

4.10. The Company reserves the right to be able to verify the transactions of a Customer at any time in case of a suspicion of rigging the prices. Provided that it has been proven that such rigging actually occurred, the Company reserves the right to block the Customer's Accounts and bestow a financial fine on the Customer, whose extent will depend upon the level of the damage caused. For the purposes of this Agreement, rigging the prices is a situation, where the Customer or an organized group of Customers uses more accounts in parallel to reach for a better price with the purpose of enriching themselves.

5. THE MARGIN ACCOUNT (FOR CORPORATE AND INSTITUTIONAL CUSTOMERS ONLY)

5.1. The Margin account is an electronic facility, which enables You to use the Exchange Platform to trade margined Assets derivatives. Corporate and institutional Customers can open the Margin account by following instructions provided in the trading terminal of the Exchange Platform.

5.2. Margin trading is HIGH RISK. As a borrower, You may sustain a total loss of Assets, or owe Assets beyond what You have deposited to Your Margin account. The high volatility and substantial risk of illiquidity in markets means that You may not always be able to liquidate Your position.

5.3. The margined Assets derivative contract shall mean a leveraged transaction made via the Exchange Platform for the purchase or sale of a financial instrument, which includes a Virtual Currency aimed on generating profit arising out of speculating activity or for hedging purposes, provided that such transaction does not give rise to an obligation relating to, or resulting in physical delivery of financial instrument and does not assume currencies conversion operations subject to physical delivery. For the removable of doubt upon settlement of the margined cryptocurrency derivative contract, the difference in value between the opening and closing positions will either be credited or debited to the Customer's Margin account according to the profit or loss for the transaction.

5.4. We execute all Your trading orders on Margin account subject to the available liquidity.

We will provide execution through the available exchange and trading system, which functionality is available in the Exchange Platform, in accordance with the Trading Rules, which form an integral part of this Agreement. We hold the multi-currency exposure as such corresponds to the Customer's transactions.

5.5. We make no guarantees that any Your order shall be executed with or without price gaps or executed at all. The ability to execute an order is dependent upon our ability to offset the trade at our clearing houses, at the Company's sole discretion.

5.6. You shall provide to, and maintain with us margin in amounts and in forms, as we, in our sole discretion, require. The Company may change margin requirements at any time. No previous margin requirement by the Company shall prevent the Company from increasing that requirement without prior notice. We retain the right to limit the amount and/or total number of open positions that Customer may acquire or maintain on Margin account. It is the responsibility of the Customer to maintain the minimum Margin Level requirements to support all open positions without notice from the Company. The Customer hereby assumes that if he/she fails to comply with margin requirements, the Company in its sole discretion may liquidate any or all of open positions as per Stop out procedure. The Company is not obliged to make any warnings to the Customer prior to liquidating the position for insufficient margin. The Company shall not be responsible for any loss or damage caused, directly or indirectly, by any events, actions or omissions including but not limited to loss or damage resulting, directly or indirectly, from any delays or inaccuracies in the transmission of orders and/or information due to a breakdown in or failure of any transmission or communication facilities. For example, in volatile market conditions, margin calls may be delayed resulting in the possibility of a negative usable margin; a margin call may occur even if positions are hedged due to currency conversion rate or daily interest if appropriate.

5.7. A position will be carried forward at the initial execution price until it is eventually closed by the Customer or by the Company under the provisions of this Agreement. Consistent with our policy, a position that is carried forward may be credited or debited interest charges, as may be defined on the Website, until the position is closed if appropriate.

5.8. All funds, securities, currencies, and other property of the Customer which the Company or its affiliates may at any time be carrying for the Customer (either individually, jointly with another, or as a guarantor of the account of any other person) which may at any time be in its possession or control or carried on its books for any purpose, including safekeeping, are to be held by the Company as security and is subject to a general lien and right to set-off for liabilities of the Customer to the Company whether or not the Company has made advances in connection with securities, commodities, currencies or other property, and irrespective of the number of Accounts Customer may have with the Company. The Customer hereby also grants to the Company the right to pledge, re-pledge, hypothecate, invest or loan, either separately or with the property of other Customers, to itself as broker or to others, any securities or other property of Customer held by the Company as margin or security. The Company shall at no time be required to deliver to the Customer the identical property delivered to or purchased by the Company for any Account of Customer.

5.9. The Customer authorizes the Company to rollover all open positions in the Customer's Margin account, at the Customer's risk, into the next settlement time period upon such terms as the Company determines, in its sole discretion. The positions will be rolled over by debiting or crediting the Customer's Margin account with the amount calculated in accordance with the Company's interest policy if appropriate.

5.10. The Company has the right to annul and/or reverse any trades which are deemed untrue or opened at a fictitious price not existing on the market at the time of opening or are in breach with the subject of this Agreement as expressly stipulated above. Without limiting the foregoing, if the Company, in its reasonable discretion, determines that the Customer is engaging or has engaged in trading strategies or activities designed intentionally to exploit errors in price quotations and/or delay, disruption, failure or malfunction of any transmission or communication system or software, Exchange Platform the Company may upon notice to the Customer restrict or modify Customer's access to price quotations, cancel trades, or terminate Customer's access to the Exchange Platform.

6. EXPENSES AND COMMISSIONS

6.1. The Company will not charge any commission for crediting Assets to any of the Accounts or withdrawal of Assets from any of the Accounts. However, You may be charged by the commission of blockchain for Virtual Currencies and commission of payment system for fiat currencies. Please be advised that Company doesn't have any influence on such commissions and is not obliged to pay such commissions on behalf of You.

6.2. The Company will charge commission on each exchange transaction initiated by the Customer (hereinafter – the "Exchange Fee"). The current Exchange Fees are specified on the Website.

6.3. The Company reserves the right to change or modify the amount of the Exchange Fee and its payment terms from time to time. Any such changes and modifications will be effective upon relevant update on the Website. If You do not agree to the posted changes and modifications, You may terminate this Agreement as provided therein. Your first use of Your Cash account following the posting of any changes or revisions to the terms of this Agreement or modified Transaction Fee as updated on the Website will constitute Your acceptance of all such changes or revisions.

6.4. Exchange Fee will be deducted from the amount of Asset purchased by You from another Company's customer. You hereby authorize the Company to charge or deduct your Cash account for any applicable Exchange Fees owed in connection with transactions You complete via the Exchange Platform.

6.5. Exchange Fees are paid by both the buyer and the seller in any given transaction.

6.6. For the removable of doubt the Customer remains liable for all charges/costs/expenses/fees incurred by the Company regarding customer's requests claims or complaints if such requests could not be comprehensively satisfied without involving of third parties.

6.7. The Company may change its charges/costs/expenses/fees without prior notice. All such charges/costs/expenses/fees shall be paid by the Customer as they are incurred, or as the Company in its sole and absolute discretion may determine, and the Customer hereby authorizes the Company to withdraw the amount of any such charges/costs/expenses/fees from the Customer's Traders Room or Accounts.

7. THE COMPANY'S RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

7.1. The Customer acknowledges that the Company has the following rights:

7.1.1. To reject, cancel, delete or adjust any exchange or trading order or transaction the Customer may place;

7.1.2. To block any Customer's Account;
